Improvement in the Relation with Bangladesh

488. SHRI SOM PAL:
SHRI N. GIRI PRASAD:
SHRI JALALUDIN ANSARI:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Indo-Bangladesh Treaty on the sharing of Ganga river waters and Prime Minister's recent visit to Dhaka have brought about improvement in the relations between the two countries;

(b) if so, whether any specific steps have been taken by Government with the Government of Bangladesh so far about 50 camps of ISI operating on its soil or insurgent activities in India's North Eastern States; and

(c) if so, the details thereof and if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI I.K. GUJRAL): (a) Yes, Sir, With the signing of Ganges Water sharing Treaty between India and Bangladesh on December 12, 1996, and with the visit of Prime Minister to Dhaka from January 6-7, 1997, India-Bangladesh relations have now been placed on a more cordial and constructive basis.

(b) and (c) Our concerns at the activities of insurgents in North Eastern States by Inter Services Intelligence have been taken up on a regular basis with the Government of Bangladesh. During Prime Minister's visit to Dhaka, we were assured of efforts to eliminate any kind of terrorism or insurgency that may affect our security.

Visit of Prime Minister to Mauritius

489. SHRI RAMDAS AGARWAL: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Prime Minister of India accompanied by Minister of External Affairs visited Mauritius recently and held discussions with Prime Minister of Mauritius on bilateral and global issues;

(b) whether the Prime Minister also participated in the meeting of 8th Session of the Indo-Mauritius Joint Commission; and

(c) if so, the details of outcome of the above discussions, the amount of aid given by India to Mauritius?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI I.K. GUJRAL): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) No, Sir. The Agreed Minutes of the Joint Commission meeting were, however, signed on February 5, 1997 in the presence of the Prime Ministers of the two countries;

(c) The discussions reflected a close identity of views on regional and international issues and a common commitment to impart new content to bilateral relations. The Joint Commission identified several new cooperation projects. India has offered to Mauritius training facilities and expert services under the Indian Technical and Economic Cooperation Programme. An Agreement was concluded for a line of credit of US $3 million to finance imports by Mauritius of capital goods, consumer durables and consultancy services from India. The Prime Minister announced a grant assistance of Rs. 20 lakhs towards construction of a memorial by the Government of Mauritius at the 'Apravasi Ghat', where the first batch of indentured labour from India landed in 1834. The Government of India would also finance an appropriate project to be identified by the Government of Mauritius at I lot village in Mauritius, which the Prime Minister visited.
